IN THIS ISSUE:

Hundreds of Alumni Gather for Reunion
Page 3

Class of 1897 Wins Cubley Cup
Page 8

Alumnae Pool Fund Passes $20,000
Page 9

300 Attend Alumnae Commencement Dinner
Page 11

Eastman House Made Photographic Institute
Page 13

HITTING A NOTE OF FELLOWSHIP

An alumni reunion scarcely would be complete without barber shop quartet melodies. The Gay Blades supplied the close harmony at the Alumni Reunion Dinner. From left, they are: Dave Cadwallader, John Thompson, Bill Blackman and Jim Archibald.
More people are smoking CAMELS today than ever before in history!

Yes, experience during the shortage taught millions the differences in cigarette quality!

DIVING Champion Mildred O'Donnell hasn't forgotten the war shortage of cigarettes. "I never realized there were such differences in cigarettes until the shortage," she recalls. "That's when I really learned what cigarette suits me best—Camel."

Millions of others had the same experience, with the result that today more Camels are being smoked than ever before in history. But, no matter how great the demand:

We don't tamper with Camel quality. Only choice tobaccos, properly aged, and blended in the time-honored Camel way, are used in Camels.

According to a recent Nationwide survey:

MORE DOCTORS SMOKE CAMELS than any other cigarette

Three nationally known independent research organizations asked 113,597 doctors—in every branch of medicine—to name the cigarette they smoked. More doctors named Camel than any other brand.
Hundreds of Alumni Gather for Reunion,
97th Commencement of University

From Quebec to Texas, from Vermont to Nevada, hundreds of loyal sons of Rochester converged on the campus on Friday and Saturday, June 13 and 14, for the first post-war alumni reunion and the University’s 97th annual commencement.

There were way-stops at many points in and about the city Saturday noon as reunion classes gathered for luncheons at such diverse rendezvous as the Country Club of Rochester, Point Pleasant Hotel, Lake Shore Country Club and Powder Mill Park.

Climax of the two-day alumni program was the “Alumnite” dinner and meeting in the Alumni Gymnasium on Saturday evening, high-lighted by the award of the Cubley Cup to the Class of 1897, which drew nineteen of its twenty-eight living members for its first organized gathering in twenty-five years; the election of John W. Remington, ’17, as president of the Associated Alumni, and the presentation of alumni awards to Matt Lawless, ’12, retiring president, and to Prof. Charles W. Watkeys, ’01, for their distinguished contributions to both the graduate and undergraduate life of the University.

Seldom have the college songs been sung with such gusto as they were at the alumni dinner, with Norman “Pop” Nairn, ex-’09, composer of the “Campus Song” and other well-loved tunes, at the electric organ imported for the occasion, and Kenneth Mook, Eastman School graduate, as song leader. The entire occasion was marked with a spirit and enthusiasm that betoken growing interest and participation in the expanded Associated Alumni programs ahead.

The alumni Commencement weekend began with the traditional fraternity reunions on Friday evening, followed by a dance in the Alumni Gymnasium that brought out some three hundred couples and set a holiday mood that carried through the following days.

Another feature of the annual dinner was John Remington’s report on the successful year of fund raising for the Alumni War Memorial Scholarship. The fund has reached an all-time high of $17,411 from 1,417 contributors, with further gifts expected. Final results and details will be published soon in the annual Alumni Fund report.

For ’22’s twenty-fifth milestone, special features included an anniversary booklet written and edited by Paul Lyddon, who also had decorated the wall back of the speakers’ table with some fine enlarged photographs of historic buildings on the Old Campus. Somehow or other, the Times-Union that day showed up in one edition carrying banner headlines in 144-point type which screamed “Famous UR Class of 1922 Back on Campus for Day.” The fact that Joseph T. Adams, ’22, is managing editor of the T-U may have had something to do with this startling journalistic phenomenon. Prof. George C. Curtiss and Dr. Arthur S. Gale were guests of honor, and John Sullivan was toastmaster.

From the Class of ’22 also came the most enlightening vital statistics. It reported that ninety-eight per cent of its members are married and have sired sixty-eight children, an average of two per family. Herb Jackson won the title of super-father, with five offspring, and also of being the father of the youngest child, aged one year. Don Mason is father of the oldest child, twenty-two.

The average weight of the class in 1922 was one hundred and forty-three pounds, and in 1947, one hundred and sixty-five pounds. The heftiest member, Charlie Rumrill, far exceeds the average at two hundred and ten pounds, while the lightest is Immanuel Arndt, one hundred and ten pounds.

On the “condition of the pate,” sixty-five per cent still boast hair, and the remainder listed themselves as “hairless.” A somewhat wistful and unrealistic note was detected in the report on physical condition, in which eighty-four per cent bragged that they are “generally robust, virile, optimistic, bullish, waggish, ready, willing and able.” The rest admitted being in various stages of senility, extending to suspended animation.
Prof. Charles W. Watkeys, '01, receives the Alumni Faculty Award from Dean Arthur S. Gale, honorary member of the Class of 1922.

Frank L. Cubley, '97, (left) presents the Cubley Cup to his classmate, Clarence P. Moser, for '97's record reunion attendance.

John W. Remington, '17, new president of the Associated Alumni, and Matt Lawless, '12, winner of Alumni Award, exchange congratulations.

An alumni group from the Gay '90s or thereabouts, took time out from field house festivities for this photo.

An afternoon of steady downpour failed to dampen enthusiasm of the '36-'37 reunion at Powder Mill Park.
Clarence P. Moser (center), host to the class of 1897 and moving spirit behind its 50th reunion, talks over college days with Arthur R. Anderson (left), 81-year-old Rochester attorney and oldest member of the class, and Albert E. Gubelmann, retired Yale professor, nearing his 71st birthday, youngest man in the class. They hold a college-days picture of their class.

Safely undercover from the rain, college mates of '36 and '37 posed for this shot at Powder Mill Park.

The alumni banquet as seen from a balcony high above the gym floor. Nearly 500 attended.

Random shot taken at the field house gathering which preceded the banquet.
Part of the "Famous UR Class of 1922" paused for this picture before digging into the fried chicken.

Closeup of a group from '36 and '37 as they dined on hots, beans, salad and beer at their reunion.

Here are most of the 60 members of '37 who attended their 10th reunion at Powder Mill Park.
Class of 1897 Wins Cubley Cup at 50th Reunion

No REUNION group at the University's 97th commencement had a better representation, or more fun and enthusiasm, than the Class of 1897, whose members came from many parts of the country for their fiftieth anniversary celebration.

Of twenty-seven known living members, nineteen returned to the campus for the alumni festivities, enough to win, most fittingly, the Cubley Cup, given annually by their classmate, Frank L. Cubley, of Potsdam, N. Y., a leading attorney and outstanding citizen of the North Country, to the class with the largest percentage of members at the alumni commencement reunion. The youngest member of the class present was Albert E. Gubelmann, of Brooklyn, retired educator and former member of the Yale faculty, who will be 71 in September. The oldest was Arthur R. Anderson, 81, Rochester attorney who is still engaged in active practice.

It was '97's first reunion in twenty-five years, and they made the most of the occasion. At luncheon on Saturday, June 16, they were guests of their colleague, Clarence P. Moser, Rochester attorney, at the Country Club of Rochester. He had been busy since last February assembling his classmates.

In professions and interests, the class represents many fields of endeavor, including doctor, lawyer, and even, by honorary title, Indian chief, the latter in the person of the Rev. William A. Petzold, who was unable to attend because, he wrote, he was “surrounded by redskins.” He lives in Lodge Grass, Montana, on the Crow Indian reservation. For 38 years he has been superintendent of Indian missions in Montana, and has studied and visited Indian tribes in Canada, the United States and Mexico, and taken part in many Indian councils. In 1929 he was given an honorary D.D. degree by Linfield College, Oregon. Three others who had planned to attend but were prevented by illness in their families were the Rev. Willis E. Pettitbone, of Tacoma, Washington, the Rev. George J. Searles, well-known San Francisco clergyman, and Henry A. Smith, supervisor of the Louisville, Kentucky, office of the Equitable Life Insurance Company. Present at the reunion were the following:

Arthur R. Anderson, attorney, Rochester; Frank L. Cubley, attorney, Potsdam, N. Y.; George A. Fairbank, retired minister, McGraw, N. Y.; Rowland W. Grimmel, Cleveland, Ohio, wholesaler; Albert E. Gubelmann, Brooklyn, retired professor; Milo B. Hillegas, Plattsburg, retired professor, formerly of the Columbia University faculty; Clarence P. Moser, attorney, Rochester; Frank P. Reilly, attorney, New York City; Robert Salter, contractor, Rochester; Elwood B. Smith, attorney, New York City; Albert H. Stearns, attorney, Rochester; George B. Williams, newspaper publisher, Geneva, N. Y.; Robert A. Witherspoon, retired chemical manufacturer, Hampstead, Quebec; non-graduates, Curtis W. Barker, retired, Rochester; William L. Hutchison, retired, Rochester; Herbert R. Lewis, insurance man, Rochester; Alexander M. Lindsay, Jr., retired, Rochester; G. Willard Rich, patent lawyer, Washington, D. C., and Dr. George M. Thompson, Rochester.

From the Annual Report of the Alumni Secretary

By PETER J. PROZELLER, '37
Executive Secretary, Associated Alumni

The ALUMNI program in the past year has been characterized by the revival of certain alumni traditions such as Alumni Campus Night dinners, class reunions, and the Alumni Gymnite every Wednesday evening in the gymnasium. A newcomer to the calendar, and planned again for next year, is the Alumni Homecoming Weekend and clambake scheduled for one of our football games. In this connection, our appeal to Elmer Burnham, head football coach, is that winning this homecoming game, like last year, may also become one of the traditions.

One highlight of the year is the enlarged scholarship program supported by the alumni. Two scholarships will be awarded annually, the new Alumni War Memorial Scholarship which your contributions to the Alumni Fund this year have made possible, and the Michael L. Casey Scholarship, created in 1941. The Alumni Selection Committee, with Neil Wright as chairman, is happy to announce that the Alumni War Memorial Scholar who will enter this September is William Beckler of Massillon, Ohio. The committee, however, is still interviewing finalists for the Casey award.

When fully under way, the new scholarship program underwritten by the Alumni Fund will amount to $3,000 annually. In addition, Chicago alumni are providing their own group of Central Alumni Scholarships and New York alumni also have their own scholarship program.

The most important new step during the past year has been the inauguration of the class agent system in behalf of the Alumni Fund.

The regional associations are stronger than ever before. They have cooperated with Chuck Dalton on admissions work, and he can tell you better than I of... their successful efforts to send outstanding students to the University. The Chicago group under the leadership of Bob Exter has set the pace, but it is no longer running alone. New York, Philadelphia, Washington, Boston, Buffalo, and Ithaca have been active, and have kept President Valentine, Dexter Perkins, and others on the faculty busy as the principal speakers at their various meetings during the year. In fact, tonight marks the third time out of four dinner meetings locally that President Valentine has been our guest speaker.

The Alumni-Alumnae Review deserves some comment at this time—just enough to say that steps are underway to make it an even better medium for keeping alumni informed about their university and alumni affairs. The co-editors, Charles Cole and Warren Phillips, are doing the best job possible with the facilities at their disposal. No changes in editorial policy are contemplated, but an increase in the appropriation in next year's budget will permit a better printing job and a more timely presentation of all the news that's fit to print. If, however, there seems to be a dearth of class notes about alumni, it is because only a few of you ever tell us about yourselves. Therefore, in this connection, we invite you to drop us a short note whenever you become engaged, married, have an increase in the family, or are promoted, demoted, etc.

During the past year all alumni, whether or not they had contributed to the Alumni Fund, received each issue of the Review. Next year, except for the first issue in October and last issue in July 1948, only the contributors to the current Alumni Fund will receive copies. Make sure that you are on the mailing list.

So much for past performance, except to mention that the mechanics of making the post-war program reach every alumnus have been handicapped because the office staff has been swamped by a backlog of address changes and because I am new on the job. We shall try to be more efficient next year, and your criticisms for improving alumni relations are invited.

During the past year alumni of this university have adapted themselves to a new role. Within the last twenty-four months the University has changed from a buyer's to a seller's market. For decades, one important function of the alumni was to seek out prospective students. Today the problem is to find a place for their own sons and daughters, to say nothing of their friends.

The fact that Rochester alumni appreciate this problem is reflected in their attitude, and willingness to shift to a new role. Now the major function of alumni should be to bend every effort to increase their financial assistance to the University because the need is greater than ever before. That many of you have accepted this new role is evidenced by the healthy growth of the Alumni Fund during the past year.

In conclusion, I wish to say that it has been a pleasure to serve with your elected officers. President Matt Lawless yields the gavel tonight after a year of devoted service, and many of the worthwhile traditions that have been revived are due to Matt's love for this University and what it stands for. Some one has termed Matt as the "All-American Alumnus." He is all of that and more, too.

The Class of 1947 joins us for the first time tonight. Its influence will strengthen our program for the coming year.

Alumnae Swimming Pool Fund Passes $20,000

During the past year the drive for funds for the proposed swimming pool has been directed toward more group sponsored projects, rather than solicited gifts from individual alumnae or special gifts from friends of the University. The final results for this year show that the fund has increased by some $4,000, making a total of $20,012.

One of the most successful projects was the rummage sale held on April 9-10 by Classes of 1930-1939, which boosted the fund by $530. Their plea, "Remember this is because we, as alumnae, are interested in a constructive contribution to our Alma Mater," stimulated the alumnae support of the project.

General chairman of the sale were: Ruth Seebach Parker, '36, and Gertrude Morley Lines, '37. They were assisted by the following class chairmen: Dorotha S. Bootey, '30; Geraldine J. Mermagan, '31; Pauline K. Kline, '32; Harriet Rippey, '34; Evelyn H. White, '35; Edith Lyon, '36; Eugenia Scheid, '37; Louise S. Baxter, '38, and Anne S. Hammond, '39.

The Chicago Alumnae Association sponsored a sale of greeting cards, proceeds from which were contributed to the Swimming Pool Fund, adding $22.

The continuation of regional as well as local interest and support, will be of the greatest value in successfully completing the campaign for $140,000.
Shown at the alumnae reception for seniors on Monday, May 26, in Memorial Art Gallery are (from left): Joan Lane, senior class secretary, College for Women; Anne Johnston Skivington, '40, reception chairman; Carolyn E. Achilles, senior class secretary, Eastman School of Music, and Mrs. Howard Hanson.

Alumnae Entertain at Reception for Senior Women

THE ALUMNAE Association entertained at a reception in the Fountain Court of the Memorial Art Gallery on May 26 in honor of the graduating women of the College of Arts and Science, Eastman School of Music and Schools of Medicine and Nursing.

This affair, which replaced the luncheon formerly held during Commencement weekend, served to welcome these newest alumnae into the Association membership. Identification tags in the shape of mortarboards and scrolls facilitated introductions of the more than 200 attending.

In the Little Theatre, new alumnae were greeted by the alumnae president, Eleanor Collier Crary, '37, after which Patricia Fallon, '45, and Evelyn Meyers Currie, '45, presented a skit entitled “Susie Sadsac.” Popular radio themes and advertisements were paraphrased to the UR alumnae. Later, coffee and refreshments were served in the Fountain Court.

The committee was headed by Anne Johnston Skivington, '40, who was assisted by Ann Schumacher Hammond, '39, hostesses; Pauline Parce Parks, '40, guests; Bernice Whitham Brugler, '25, refreshments; Ethel M. Dunn, '27, tickets; Louise Sweetnam Baxter, '38, invitations; and Margaret Johnston Birrell, '36, decorations. Others serving on the committee were Jean Masters Cole, '25, Mildred Scribner, '25, Marion Maggs Vicinus, '27, and Ruth Gliddon Ostendorf, '18.

This reception was another forward step in unifying the various colleges of the University, and it is hoped that it will continue to hold a favored spot on the Alumnae social calendar.

Marie LeMay Woodams, '24, Named Alumnae President

ALUMNAE WHO were present at Commencement Dinner witnessed a pleasant surprise when Eleanor Collier Crary, '37, retiring president of the Association, announced the new president for the year 1947-48, Marie LeMay Woodams, '24, who is as well known among alumnae, as her husband, Bert Woodams, '13, is among alumni.

Marie has been active in the Association, serving on the Board of Directors as well as on numerous program committees. She has also taken an active part in the community, working with the Girl Scouts and the Parent-Teachers Association. After some persuasion, Marie modestly admitted that she is a good electrician, paper-hanger, and carpenter, but that she is quite willing to temporarily set aside these accomplishments for the gentler art of wielding Roberts' rules at board meetings, as well as the many other tasks which her new office will impose upon her.

Other new officers for the coming year include Caroline Marsh Hinchesy, '34, vice-president; Mildred Smeed Van de Walle, '22, treasurer, and Pauline Parce Parks, '40, secretary. The new members of the Board of Directors were also announced at the dinner. They will hold office until June, 1950. They are: Elizabeth Hazeltine Gibaud, '26, representing Eastman School alumnae; Emma O'Keefe, '31, representing University School graduates; Ethel Bills Burr Wilkens, '08; Judith Ogden Taylor, '13; Dorothy Lobett Burdick, '24; Virginia Townsend Miller, '35, and Mary Babcock, '45.

Retiring members of the Board of Directors who have served their term of three years are: Ethel M. Kates, '06; Helen Seifert Wolgast, '14; Frances DeWitt Babcock, '26; Ethel M. Dunn, '27; Mary Leader Lewis, '28; Elinor Snyder Kappelman, '35, and Betty Anne Hale, '41.

New and retiring officers and directors of the Association were entertained at a buffet supper at the home of Eleanor Collier Crary on Tuesday, June 17. Mary Leader Lewis, '28, arranged for the entertainment which was followed by a very attractive supper.

Three Hundred Attend Alumnae Commencement Dinner

The Alumnae Commencement Dinner this year proved a delightful climax to an active year for the women of the University.

More than 300 alumnae and guests attended the dinner in Cutler Union. Highlight of the evening was the address given by Dr. Kathrine Koller, popular head of the English Department. Guest of honor was Dr. Barbara McClintock, who received an honorary doctor of science degree at Commencement. Other guests included Lester Bowles Pearson, Commencement speaker, and Dr. Douglas Stuart Moore, recipient of the degree, doctor of music, at the exercises.

Eleanor Collier Crary, '39, retiring president of the Association, presided at the dinner. The invocation was asked by Mrs. Harper Sibley, an honorary alumna. Other speakers included Dean Janet H. Clark, who introduced Dr. McClintock, outstanding cytogeneticist and winner of the AAUW award of $2,500, given in recognition of distinguished scholarship.

Dr. Koller's talk on “The Disciplined Life, Then and Now” dealt with the timely problem of the modern woman's pursuit of happiness. Her thesis was that modern women do not exert enough self-discipline, and she cited examples of seventeenth century women who achieved happiness, she said, while enduring many more hardships than women of today. She quoted excerpts from their diaries which, she said, showed that they possessed self-discipline, “the first step toward the tranquil spirit so necessary to the truly happy individual.”

President Valentine gave a brief talk on the state of the University, stressing the many new developments in recent years, and asked for the moral support of alumnae in the University's continuing search for additional financial support.

Chairman of the dinner committee was Elinor Snyder Kappelman, '35. She was assisted by Jean Masters Cole, '25; Lura Schank Hanley, '25; Ethel M. Dunn, '27; Margaret Doerffel Waasdorp, '37, and Marie LeMay Woodams, '24.

A printed annual report of the Alumnae Association's activities during the past year was presented to each dinner guest.

Evidence of the outstanding job done by the new Alumnae Fund class agents can be seen by the record-breaking contributions which have been received to date, as a result of their wholehearted efforts. On June 24, contributions totaling $5,311 had been received from 1,227 alumnae, according to Betty Anne Hale, '40, fund chairman. This amount is $717 ahead of the final total for the 1946 campaign and represents gifts from 168 more active supporters—the main objective of the drive.

In his remarks, President Valentine congratulated the Alumnae Fund Committee and the class agents for their splendid efforts. Ann Schumacher Hammond, '39, chairman of the class agents, reports that, in addition to the boost the agents have given the fund itself, they have been responsible for gathering much interesting news about former classmates who had not been heard from for years. They have also been a tremendous aid to the alumnae office in securing accurate up-to-date information for the files.

---

Six Alumni on Faculty, Staff Of Associated N.Y. Colleges

Six alumni of the University of Rochester are members of the faculty and staff of the Associated Colleges of Upper New York. The colleges opened last Fall, now have an enrollment of more than 6,200 freshmen crowded out of established institutions.

Philip Price, '42, is an administrative assistant to the president, with headquarters at Champlain College, Plattsburg.

Four Rochester men at Sampson College near Geneva are Harold T. Butler, '28, instructor in history and political science; George S. Day, '37, instructor in history and political science; Irma L. Guess, '30, instructor in English; and Ella F. Casey, '41, instructor in mathematics.

At Mohawk College, Utica, is Ruth Miller, '21, an instructor in history and political science.

---

/JUNE-JULY, 1947/
Women's Reunion Classes Reach Goal, Raise Dean's Fund

REUNION CLASSES had cause to celebrate on Saturday, June 14, for their efforts in raising the Dean's Fund had been successful, and they had a record-breaking group of 204 at the luncheon.

Margaret Neary Bakker, '13, Fannie R. Bigelow Award winner, spoke on "Developing Imagination," after which several individual classes held meetings:

1942 had a tea in Munro Hall, 1935 met in Susan B. Anthony Lounge, 1932, 1916, and 1915 had business meetings in the cafeteria, 1913 had a meeting in the East Lounge, and 1922 had a picnic at the home of Charlotte Westcott Johnson, '22.

The Class of 1913 won the Cutler Cup this year for having the largest percentage of its members present at the reunion luncheon, while the class of 1942 received special recognition for having the largest numerical attendance. The classes of 1913, 1914, 1915, 1916, 1922, 1932, 1933, 1934, 1935, and 1942 met under the Dix Plan.

Five Alumnae Scholarships Awarded

THE RHEES Prize Scholarship, coveted award given by the Alumnae Association in honor of Rush Rhees and Harriet Seelye Rhees, was won this year by Miss Margaret Wilson, of Lake Placid, N. Y.

Selected from many applicants recommended by alumnae in widely scattered areas, Miss Wilson possesses the qualities of intellectual attainment, strength of character, personality and leadership, which are the qualifications for this award. A top ranking scholar, she has also held important offices in her high school; she has been president of the National Honor Society, president of the Junior Class, co-editor of her school paper, and secretary of the school orchestra.

The Rhees Prize Scholarship, which carries an annual stipend of $500, was first awarded in 1935 to Clemence Stephens Curry, '39, of Oak Park, Ill. "Clemmy," a Phi Beta and leader in school activities, is now president of the Chicago Alumnae Association. Dorothy Graham Edson, '43, daughter of Alicia Morey Graham, '08, was the second recipient and received her degree with honors in English. Nancy Wales Bartlett, '47, daughter of Violet Jackling Bartlett, '23, has held the Rhees Prize Scholarship for the past four years, graduating this June with high honors.

Four other Alumnae Scholarships have been awarded for the year beginning next September. Barbara Ferrell, '50, of Nashville, Tenn., a music major, is the winner of the $300 Alumnae Scholarship. Florence Emid Butts, '50, of Sodus, daughter of Florence Lookup Butts, '19, is the recipient of a $150 award. Jean Somers, '49, of Rochester, daughter of Della Allen Somers, '19, and Leland Stanford Somers, '20, received $100. Joy K. Fleming, '49, of Springfield, a music major, received the $100 Alumnae Music Honorarium as accompanist for the Glee Club of the College for Women.

The Alumnae Scholarship Committee under chairmanship of Ethel M. Kates, '06, includes Elsie Neun, '16; Alice Morse Snider, '19; Eleanor Collier Crary, '37, and Janet Phillips, '40. Dean Janet H. Clark and Isabel K. Wallace, '16, counselor on admissions, served as ex-officio members of the committee.
Eastman House Established as Photographic Institute

Eastman House, which for the last fourteen years has been the home of University of Rochester presidents, and known far and wide as the most magnificent residence of that nature to be found anywhere, is to become a photography institute and museum, the first of its kind in the world.

As such, the splendid building and grounds will become familiar not only to tens of thousands of visitors from Rochester and Western New York, but from all parts of the country and abroad.

The project, made possible by the joint action of the University, Eastman Kodak Company, and the New York State Board of Regents, was universally hailed as a singularly fitting use of the property, which thus will be a living memorial to George Eastman, the chief creator of modern photography. It will be known as George Eastman House, Inc.

The University is contributing to the undertaking the house and grounds, which Mr. Eastman bequeathed to it at the time of his death in March, 1932. Eastman Kodak Company will pay for the cost of structural changes necessary to convert the structure into a working institute, and exhibits estimated at $300,000, and also the annual operating costs, estimated at $100,000. The Board of Regents has granted a charter to permit establishing the enterprise as an educational institute to serve as an instruction and demonstration center covering photography from its beginnings to the present.

A special committee of the University’s Board of Trustees is considering arrangements regarding a new residence for President Valentine and his family. The new institute is expected to be in operation within two years, giving the University ample time to find new quarters for the Valentines.

From the University’s viewpoint, the plan affords it still another opportunity to serve the community by helping to make available not only to Rochester but to the millions of persons interested in photography all over the world an international center for the display and demonstration of the art and science of photography in all its branches. From the practical angle, it enables the University to divert into its general education programs funds which hitherto have gone into maintaining the expensive establishment.

In his will, Mr. Eastman set up a $2,000,000 endowment fund for upkeep of the house as a residence for the University’s presidents, and specified that after ten years the trustees could decide whether or not the house should be maintained for that purpose or devoted to other uses.

George Eastman House, Inc., will be operated as an educational foundation under its own board of trustees composed of members approved by the Regents. The board will be responsible for establishing and operating the institute as a working, teaching enterprise, “to instruct in the progress of photography as the world’s most facile medium of communication and to show how photography plays a manifold part in the progress of nearly all human activities.”

Members of the board are Raymond N. Ball, ’14, president of the Lincoln Rochester Trust Company; Albert K. Chapman, first vice-president and general manager of Kodak; James E. Gleason, president, the Gleason Works; Charles F. Hutchinson, Kodak executive; Dr. Albert D. Kaiser, ’09; Thomas J. Hargrave, Kodak president, and President Valentine. The continued close, though unofficial, interest of the University in Eastman House is indicated by the fact that all of the trustees except Mr. Chapman also are trustees of the University.

Although the Valentines have enjoyed the experience of living in the 37-room mansion, they are not sorry to be moving out, the President acknowledged, and are looking forward to living in a place “that will be more in keeping with the academic way of life.” Such grand surroundings, he said, have their drawbacks for ordinary living. The University is of course deeply appreciative of Mr. Eastman’s generosity in giving it his home as a dwelling for its presidents, and also for his wisdom in leaving the trustees free to decide after a period of years whether it should be continued for that purpose, he said.

The Valentines’ twelve-year-old daughter, Sally, took firm public exception to her father’s assertion that the family is not reluctant to leave Eastman House. She wrote a letter to the Times-Union asserting that she and her older sister, Laurie, have several regrets at having to move out.

“I read in your paper that my father said we were not sorry to leave Eastman House,” she told the editor. “My sister and I feel that this statement is not true. We wish to give two reasons why we do not want to leave.

“First, my sister won’t have the lovely pool in which she keeps her gold fish.

“Secondly, we won’t have a piano.

“These reasons, as I see them, are perfectly sound. Although we have many other reasons, these are the most important.”

The President, enormously tickled by his youngest child’s stout independence, has assured her that there will be a piano in the new home. The goldfish present another problem, but doubtless an adequate, if less elegant, haven will be found for them.
Polls Now Open for Voting on Alumni Boards; Six Candidates Named for Three Posts

BALLOTS FOR voting on three new members of the Board of Managers of the Associated Alumni are enclosed with this issue of the Review. Cast your vote now; check the ballot and drop it in the mail. No extra envelope or stamp is necessary. Don't delay—do it today.

The six candidates were nominated by the Alumni Council at a meeting in Todd Union, Thursday, May 8.

Terms of three members of the Board expire this year: Milton R. Robinson, ‘12; John W. Remington, ‘17, and David M. Allyn, ‘31. However, John W. Remington, ‘17, will remain as an ex-officio member of the Board of Managers as the newly elected president of the Association Alumni.

Here are the candidates for the Board, arranged according to class divisions, which, while they are not mandatory, have been generally observed in the past so as to give all groups of alumni adequate representation on the Board:

GROUP A
Charles W. Watkeys, ’01: professor emeritus of mathematics, University of Rochester; A. M. Harvard, ’08, member of Phi Beta Kappa, 20 Club, Layman’s League; Who’s Who in American Education.

Thomas H. Remington, ’11: lawyer; Harvard Law School, 1912-1915; member of Phi Beta Kappa, University Club.

GROUP B

Nicholas E. Brown, ’28: lawyer; Harvard Law School, 1931; University Club; class agent for Alumni Fund.

GROUP C
Albert H. Thomas, ’32: account executive, Hutchins Advertising Agency; gunnery officer U.S. Navy, World War II.

Five Athletes Win Alumni Awards At Dandelion Dinner in May

ALUMNI TROPHIES were awarded to three football and two basketball players at the revived River Campus Dandelion Dinner on May 14. The football trophies went to the following:

Capt. Bob Hoe, guard, Don Diehl, halfback, and Tom Hoffman, center, of the 1946 gridiron team.

Basketball awards were given to Co-Capt. Johnny Baynes, guard, and Chuck Gray, center, of the 1946-47 court squad.

Bob Hoe won the Raymond Ball-Kenneth Keating Trophy as the team's outstanding linesman; Diehl, the Gordon Wallace Trophy as its best back, and Hoffman the Raymond G. Phillips Trophy as the most improved player on the squad.

Baynes received the Rufus Hedges Trophy as the player who contributed most to the basketball team and Gray, the Alcott Neary Trophy as the player who showed the greatest improvement. Baynes won the Neary award in 1943, just before leaving college for Army service, the year that Dick Baroody, co-captain of the 1946-47 team, won the Hedges Trophy.

First Award of Dutton Prize Made to Joseph J. Lipper, ’47

FIRST AWARD of the annual Dutton Prize created by a fund established in the will of Percy B. Dutton, ’04, was made at the Dandelion Dinner of the College for Men on May 12 to Joseph J. Lipper of Rochester, a member of the June, 1947, graduating class.

Percy Dutton, who died on December 29, 1945, provided that the prize should be given each year to the member of the graduating class at the College for Men who “has excelled all his men classmates in wholesome, unselfish, and helpful influence among his fellow students.” The prize carries a cash value of $70.

The annual Terry Prize of $100 was awarded to Warren P. Richardson of Fillmore, N. Y., as the senior who by his “industry, manliness, and honorable conduct has done most for the life and character of the college.” Richardson served as president of the Students’ Association this year.

Both Lipper and Richardson are veterans who left college early in the war for service with the armed forces and returned to become outstanding campus leaders.
Among those who attended the New York Alumnae luncheon at the Skipper Restaurant in May was this group (from left): Mary Page Norris, '29, president of the New York Alumnae; Dr. Margaret Grant, guest speaker, honorary alumna and former dean of students of Eastman School of Music; and Kathryn Miller Kregg, '29, luncheon chairman.

REGIONAL ASSOCIATIONS

BOSTON

Dr. and Mrs. Dexter Perkins were guests of honor May 27 at the annual spring Alumnae-Alumni dinner meeting of the Boston Associations, which was held at the Graduate House of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology in Cambridge. Dr. Perkins, favorite speaker of Regional Associations as well as Rochester alumnae, spoke on affairs in England and the United States. Co-chairmen of the affair were Mary Burns Grice, '35, and Otto E. Schaefer, '36.

BUFFALO

Dean Janet H. Clark was guest speaker at a dinner meeting of the Buffalo Alumnae Association on May 22 at the Kathryn Lawrence Dining Room. "Men, Women, and Human Beings" was Dean Clark's whimsical topic, and she gave a very amusing account of some of their contrasts and similarities. Mildred Lee Stewart, '28, retiring president, was the toastmaster and Janet Phillips, alumnae secretary, was a guest. Newly elected officers for the coming year were presented. They are: Edith Geiger, '33, president; Eugenia Plewinski, '40, vice-president; Mildred E. Murenberg, '44, secretary; Leone Reeves Hemenway, '34, treasurer; and Mary Chamberlain Bahler, '29, publicity.

A fine Spring evening, together with a flying delegation from Rochester headed by President Valentine, a delectable buffet supper, and lively discussions on affairs of the University combined to make the May 9 meeting of the Buffalo Alumni Association one of the most enjoyable in the organization's annals.

About 45 men from the Buffalo area and Rochester gathered in the home of Nelson W. Barrett, '23, in the late afternoon and remained until nearly midnight to listen with keen interest to reports by President Valentine, Dr. George B. Collins, head of the Physics Department, Dr. G. Richard Wendt, '27, head of the Psychology Department, who described new research trends in his field; Chuck Dalton, '20, director of admissions, and Elmer H. Burnham, football coach, on developments and activities at the University, and by Pete Prozeller, '37, executive secretary, on Associated Alumni matters.

The President answered many questions on such varied subjects as the veterans' situation at Rochester, the place of the liberal arts in the curriculum, enrollment, and other phases of the post-war educational picture. Dr. Collins described the new supercyclotron at the River Campus and the opportunities for preeminence in nuclear research it affords the University. Dalton told of the tremendous number of applications for admission to Rochester, and the outlook for continued high enrollment.

The Buffalo group elected the following officers for 1947-48: Gilbert J. Pedersen, '30, president; Vernon G. Caldwell, '23, first vice-president; George M. Quackenbush, '22, second vice-president; Otto W. Manhardt, '31, third vice-president; Leo Winans, '30, treasurer; John J. Zeeb, '32, secretary; John Walter, '33, chorister; George G. Smith, '31, chairman; Harvey D. Blakeslee, '00, and Kenneth C. Hausauer, '26, executive committee. The nominating committee was composed of Carlyle L. Kennell, '31, chairman; George W. Stone, '00, and Nelson T. Barrett, '92.

Resolutions were adopted on the death on April 23 of Vernon M. Stone, '03, a teacher in the Buffalo schools for 43 years and for 40 years a member of the Buffalo Alumni Association.

Three generations of Barretts were hosts at the meeting: Nelson T., '92; Nelson W., '23, retiring president of the association; and Clark, now a freshman at Rochester, and Dick, who hopes to enter the University next Fall.

ITHACA

Alumnae and alumni in the Ithaca area formed a combined association at their dinner meeting on Friday, May 23. Margaret Willers Mabie, '38, retiring president, presided and Catherine D. Jones, '43, and Charles K. McGurk, '38, were elected co-chairmen of the new organization, which will also include alumnae and alumni from Binghamton, Elmira and Corning.

Dr. Earl L. Koos, chairman of the Department of Sociology, gave an interesting talk on the importance of the family in our changing society. A lively discussion followed, which included the question of emphasizing the social sciences at the University. Dr. Koos told of the progress which was being made in this direction by his department and the application of this work to community projects. Pete Prozeller and Janet Phillips took part in the meeting and three prospective students were present.

There will be a fall and a spring meeting each year, and an effort will be made to encourage outstanding high school students in the area to attend the University of Rochester.

NEW YORK

At their annual spring luncheon on May 17 at the Skipper Restaurant, members of the New York Association were pleased to have Dr. Margaret Grant as their guest speaker. Dr. Grant is the former dean of students at the Eastman School of Music and an honorary member of the Alumnae Association. Kathryn Miller Kreag, '29, was chairman of the luncheon, and introduced Dr. Grant.

Members of the Board of Directors elected by the New York Association are: Hazel C. Merriman, '10; Clara Hoffman Gilt, '16; Adele Smith May, '16; Ernestine Krieger Sasse, '18; Juliet Schoo ler Levin, '23; Martha Cobb, '25; Kathryn Miller Kreag, '29; Mary Page Norris, '29; Marian Lucius, '32; Margaret McCarthy Pickett, '40; Francis White Angevine, '41; Virginia Dwyer, '43; Halee Morris Baldwin, '44; Mary Kay Ault, '45, and Linda Deming, '46.

SYRACUSE

Alumnae and alumni in the Syracuse area had a joint picnic on June 6 at the home of Frances Henderson Cross, '09, at Green Lake, Fayetteville. Forty members were present to enjoy a musical program arranged by Dorothy Dodd MacAndrews, '26, followed by a song fest consisting mainly of UR songs.

WASHINGTON

Representative Kenneth Keating, '19, was the guest speaker at the joint alumnae-alumni meeting of the Washington Association on May 8 at the Dodge Hotel. Alumni and alumnae enjoyed hearing Ken tell about his experiences as a new member in Congress.

Olsan Family Gives Library Fund

In memory of Dr. Hiram Olsan, '05, who died on March 18 of this year, members of his family and friends have contributed a fund to the University of Rochester Library to be used for the purchase of books for the Treasure Room. A special bookplate will be used in the volumes purchased as a permanent memorial to Dr. Olsan.

Dr. Olsan's daughter, Barbara, of New York City, is an alumna of the College for Women, Class of 1936. Those who have contributed to the Library gift include his wife, his two daughters, Barbara and Mrs. Earle E. Levy, his son, Dr. Edwin S. Olsan and Mrs. Olsan, of Rochester; his sister, Mrs. Alfred H. Hyman and Mr. Hyman of Rochester; his brothers, Dr. Ira Olsan and David Olsan, both of Rochester; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Marx, Jr., Sidney M. Hyman, Sidney O. E. Dryfoos, Mrs. Horace J. Wolf, Rochester; Mr. and Mrs. Richard J. Kline, of St. Louis, Missouri; Miss Lillian M. Thursam, East Rochester; Mrs. William B. Rosenberg, and Robert M. Adler, Rochester.

A native of Rochester, Dr. Olsan had practiced in the city for thirty-five years. He attended Rochester Free Academy, and after his graduation from the University, obtained his medical degree in 1909 from the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Columbia University. He interned at Mt. Sinai Hospital in New York City.

In 1935, Dr. Olsan was elected to New York Iota Chapter of Phi Beta Kappa in recognition of his professional attainment and services to the community.

Alumni and alumnae will be interested to know the progress of the Hugh MacKenzie Memorial Fund, started last year by his friends, colleagues, and former students. While we set a goal of $2,500, only $1,205.18 has come in. Because income from this fund is to provide prizes each year to the student who has shown the highest achievement in History 1-2 and to the student who has shown the greatest improvement in the same course, we hope for many more contributions.

All of us remember the welcoming smile with which Mr. ``Mac'' greeted us when we came to his office, the patience and friendliness of which he gave so unstintingly, and how, in the class room, he quickened into life by-gone centuries. A contribution to this living memorial is a fitting tribute to Hugh MacKenzie, the teacher and the man. Please make your checks payable to the University of Rochester, and mail them to Mrs. David Allyn, treasurer, 113 Commonwealth Road, Rochester 10, New York.
FACULTY NOTES

Dr. Wallace O. Fenn, chairman of the Department of Physiology, School of Medicine and Dentistry, has been appointed by the U. S. Atomic Energy Commission on a special medical board of seven scientists in medicine and biology who will advise the commission on atomic research in the medical and biological fields.

A member of the Rochester Medical School faculty for 23 years, Dr. Fenn is a physiologist of international distinction. He became chairman of the department in 1945, and was in charge of important research on the physiology of respiration which was of lasting scientific interest.

Of special practical value were his investigations of the physiology of pressure breathing. These studies made possible the development of devices and procedures for increasing the altitude safely attainable by military fliers.

Dr. Robert E. Marshak, associate professor of physics, was elected chairman of the Federation of American Scientists at the organization's annual meeting in Washington, D.C., on May 7. He succeeds Dr. Robert Wilson of Cornell University. Dr. Marshak will remain at the University while serving as chairman.

A member of the Rochester faculty since 1939, he worked on the atomic energy development at Los Alamos, N.M. laboratory of the Manhattan District project, returning to the University last year. He is a graduate of Columbia University, and received his Ph. D. degree from Cornell University in 1939.

In 1940, he was co-winner of the A. Cressy Morrison Prize from the New York Academy of Sciences, for a paper on "The Sources of Stellar Energy" in collaboration with Prof. Hans E. Bethe of Cornell University. With E. C. Nelson and L. I. Schiff, he is the author of "This Atomic World," published in 1946. Dr. Marshak was chairman of a Fact-Finding Committee of the Association of Los Alamos Scientists.

Dr. Curt Stern, professor of zoology and chairman of the department, will resign on August 31 to become professor of zoology at the University of California at Berkeley, where he will devote much of his time to research. He has been a member of the Rochester faculty since 1931, beginning as a research associate and rising to full professor in 1941. He is internationally known in the field of genetics. He became managing editor of the bi-monthly publication, "Genetics," this year and will serve in that capacity for five years.

Dr. J. Edward Hoffmeister, dean of the College of Arts and Science, was elected president of the Rochester chapter of Sigma Xi, honorary national scientific society on May 23, Dr. Harold C. Hodge, professor of pharmacology at the School of Medicine and Dentistry, was elected vice-president.

Of twenty-three Rochester scientists newly elected to membership, all but two are connected with the University. Members of the faculties among the new members are Drs. Clauncey G. Bly, interne in pathology; Dr. William A. Clay, interne in medicine; Dr. Johannes Holter, associate professor of zoology; A. William Kuchler, assistant professor of geography; Dr. Walter Mann, instructor in toxicology; Dr. Paul E. Rekers, associate in radiology; Dr. John A. Seibling, instructor in surgery; Dr. Roger Terry, instructor in pathology; Dr. Frank W. McKee, graduate fellow in pathology, and Aser Rothblum, instructor in pharmacology.

The River Campus was saddened on May 9 by the death of 26-year-old Robert E. Weaver, instructor in chemical engineering, at Strong Memorial Hospital after an illness of several months. He also had served as resident proctor in the Stadium Dormitory.

A graduate of the University of Illinois, where he received his B. S. degree in 1944, he came to the University of Rochester as a graduate student in March, 1944, and received his master's degree in 1945. He had been an instructor since July, 1945. A native of St. Louis, Mo., he was for many years a resident of Jacksonville, Ill.

YOUR CLASSMATES

College for Men

1904

Dr. Charles C. Bidwell, head of the department of physics of Lehigh University, retired July 1 with the rank of professor emeritus after 20 years' service.

1916

Elected to the board of directors of Abraham & Straus, Inc., Manhattan department store, was Kenneth C. Richmond. Since 1930 he has been a vice-president in charge of the administration, control and personnel divisions. Walter Seibel reports that at the conclusion of a recent talk before the Fort Worth, Tex., Kiwanis Club, Art Ticknor, '74, came up and introduced himself. The two had their own reunion then and there, with plenty of football talk. Walt played center for the varsity from 1913-15 and Art played the same position while he was in college.

1918

Seldon Thomas, member of the U. S. State Department staff, is now serving as first secretary of the American Embassy in Ecuador. He previously held posts in Argentina, Denmark and Iceland.

1919

Representative Kenneth B. Keating supported the Taft-Hartley labor bill which recently became law over President Truman's veto. Ken said that while certain sections of the bill did not meet with his approval, he felt that as a whole it represented constructive legislation. Ken visited Rochester recently and was guest speaker at a number of civic gatherings.

1920

George F. Kobza, vice-president of The Pfaudler Company, handled the company's synthetic rubber, sulfa products, atabrine, chemical warfare, explosive and penicillin equipment programs during the war years.

1921

Appointed dean of Bowdoin College, Brunswick, Me., was Dr. Nathaniel C. Kendrick, son of Ryland M. Kendrick, professor emeritus of Greek at the University. He won his doctorate of philosophy at Harvard in 1911 and later went to Bowdoin as assistant professor of history, subsequently becoming full professor.

Charles Headley is chairman of the voice faculty, Arthur Jordan Conservatory, and director of the Indianapolis Opera Theater. He is living at 5152 E. Michigan St., Indianapolis 10, Ind.

1923

Lloyd C. Patchin is supervisor of development at the Gleason Works in Rochester. During the war he was stationed overseas as technical consultant to the Department of Commerce. He resides at 108 Chestnut Hill Dr.

1924

General secretary of the Social Service League in Geneva, N.Y., is Mark C. Holder. His address is 5 Seneca St., Geneva.

1927

H. Sylvester Partridge is a member of the mortage department of the Union Trust Company, Rochester. Father of three daughters, including a set of twins, he lives at 101 Colebrook Dr., Rochester.

1928

Frank F. Abercrombie is with American Telephone and Telegraph, 105 Broadway, New York City. He resides with his family of two boys and one girl at 56 High Street, East Williston, Long Island.

1929

Also father of a set of twins, besides two other children, is C. Gregory Smith, office manager for the Tennessee Eastman Corp. He lives at 801 Yadkin St., Kingsport, Tenn.

1930

Robert R. Burrage has been appointed by Gov. W. M. Tuck of Virginia to the State Board of Examiners in Optometry for a three-year term. Robert explains that he lives on the same street as the farm on the Phillips Road, Victor, N. Y., from the Army as lieutenant colonel and Connecticut.

1931

Methods section of the Armstrong Cork man Kodak. It pointed manager of the organizations and Company. The Browns have one child, a boy and girl, ages 9 and 5 respectively, and family of two sons at 129 Dake Ave., Rochester 5, N. Y.

1932

Louis Richardson is with the Haloid Company and lives at 114 Vassar St. Rochester 8, N. Y.

Kemneth R. Chapman, is in the purchasing department of Camera Works Division of Eastman Kodak Company. He resides with his wife and two children, a boy and girl, ages 9 and 5 respectively, at 108 East Parkway, Rochester 5, N. Y.

1933

Charles M. Lee resides with his wife and family of two sons at 129 Dake Ave., Rochester 12. He is in the engineering department of Hawkeye Division of Eastman Kodak.

Mortimer Copeland is director of industrial relations for the Consolidated Petroleum Company. He is located in Office 1706, Phelps Building, Caracas, Venezuela.

Elmer L. Brown was discharged recently from the Army as lieutenant colonel and is now back with Socony-Vacuum Oil Company. The Browns have one child, and live on Skiff Street, North Haven, Connecticut.

1934

Fred H. Detmar, is assistant director of public relations of the Chicago Motor Club, lives at 8313 Constance St., Chicago.

Charles A. Phillips, Jr. lives on a small farm on the Phillips Road, Victor, N. Y., with his wife and two sons, ages 5 and 5½. He is in the sales department of Victor Insulators Inc.

1936

Lowell H. Goodhue recently was appointed manager of the organizations and methods section of the Armstrong Cork Co., Lancaster, Pa. He joined that company in 1936 and was a member of the sales staff until 1942 when he joined the Navy. He returned to Armstrong in 1946.

1937

Norman Rahjohn has to miss his tenth reunion because he was on a business trip through New England. His home address is 536 Watson Street, Akron 5, Ohio.

1938

Elmer E. Bazeill is a practicing attorney in Washington, D. C. He and his wife, the former Edna Mae Woolf, have one son, Peter. They reside at 5410 Macomb St., N. W., Washington, D. C.

Matthew J. Pillard is principal of Dansville High School. He has two sons, ages 5 and 2. His address is 37 Steward St., Dansville, N. Y.

George Schreiner has returned to the employ of Price, Waterhouse and Co., public accountants, since his discharge from the Supply Corps, USNR.

John Bruce Scroggins is living in Main Street, Mumford, N. Y. The home which he has bought since his release from the service, is near a trout stream and good hunting. He and his wife have just adopted four-year-old Patty Mac.

Carl H. Mader is a technical representative for the X-Ray Division of the Eastman Kodak Company and resides at 1717 Indiana Ave. Chicago 16, III.

Harry C. Wardell is boys' work director of the Lockport YMCA, and lives at 230 Church St., Lockport, N. Y.

Robert B. Cantrick is assistant professor of music at Furman University, Greenville, S. C. He received an M. A. from the University of Rochester in 1946 with a major in philosophy. He is married and has two children.

1939

Dr. Warren E. George has opened his new office of head and neck plastic surgery at 217 Alexander St., Rochester. He resides with his family at 212 Canterbury Road.

Newcomb Prozellcr is now in the real estate business in Niagara Falls. Newc lives at 460 82nd St.

Walter D. Erskine is engaged in sound engineering and industrial sales for the Erskine-Healy, Inc. at 420 St. Paul St., Rochester. He lives with his wife and two daughters at 205 Roslyn St., Rochester.

Robert Hudak is with the Hawkeye Division of Eastman Kodak Company.

1940

Walter D. Erskine announced the birth of daughter Carol Jo, born March 18, 1947. Will has his hands full now; while studying at the Graduate School of Education at Harvard, he also counseled Harvard College students on educational and vocational problems as assistant to the director of the Office of Tests of Harvard.

William F. Sherwood is a physicist at the Hawkeye plant of Eastman Kodak Company. Bill has two sons, David, 4, and John, 2, and lives at 3163 Brighton-Henrietta Townline Road, Rochester 10. Sherwin R. Terry is in business with his father in Brockport, N. Y. He and his wife, Jean Prozeller Terry, '40, added another boy, Peter, to the family May 26. They reside at 21 Holley St.

Lambert K. Kaspers is associated with the Russell Burdsall and Ward Bolt & Nut Company in their Rock Falls, Ill. plant. "Slug" resides with his wife, the former June Motter, and daughter Karen Jo, born November 10, 1941, at 702 8th St., Sterling, Ill.

Richard M. Drake is a traveling auditor for General Electric Company. On weekends he hangs his hat at 1034 Park Ave., Schenectady. He has one son, Roger, age 3.

Reginald S. Oliver is practicing law in Lyons, N. Y. He married Ruth Mann, April 14, 1944. They have one daughter Ann Ruth, age 1.

Walter D. Erskine is engaged in sound engineering and industrial sales for the Erskine-Healy, Inc. at 420 St. Paul St., Rochester. He lives with his wife and two daughters at 205 Roslyn St., Rochester.

Robert Hudak is with the Hawkeye Division of Eastman Kodak Company.

1941

Roger W. Erskine is an industrial enginewer with Lord-Taber Company, Inc., Canandaigua, N. Y. His wife and one son reside with him at 220 Penhurst Street, Rochester, N. Y.

Glenn R. Lord is an officer of Lord-Tabor Company, Inc., of Canandaigua, manufacturers of fire alarm systems called "Detecto-Master." He and his wife and two children, John and Linda, reside at 45 Scotland Rd., Canandaigua.

John Henry Manbold is now practicing dental surgery at 403 Commonwealth Ave., Boston, Mass.

A son, William Earl, was born to Harry J. Hart and Jean Lincoln Hart, '41, on May 2, 1947. They reside at 96 Arbordale Rd., Rochester 9, N. Y.

Willard A. West is associated with Rochester Products Divisions of General Motors as a quality control engineer. His address is 223 Warwick Ave., Rochester.

Douglas L. Emond lives at 14 Roosevelt Ave., Ajax, Ont. He is supervisor of Hart House, Ajax Division, University of Toronto.

Robert A. Woods is engaged in investment counsel work in Chicago. He married Ruth Diller, '44, on May 27, 1944. They are now living at 210 W. Jarvis Ave., Chicago, Ill.

Robert Barker is studying for his MBA at Wharton School. He resides with his wife and daughter, Joan, born December 4, 1946, at 1 Englewood Rd., Upper Darby, Pa.

Frederick Gebbimann has been appointed editor of the test department at Science Research Associates, Chicago publishing firm. He served three years as a naval officer, then entered the University of Chicago, where he is studying for his doctorate.

Richard H. Hoff is an engine performance engineer at Pratt & Whitney Aircraft Company. He resides at 32 Russ St., Hartford, Conn., and has a son Carl, age 1.

William J. Raab is with Shell Development Company, Berkeley, Calif. On March 22 he married Jean Kidd of Carmel, Calif.

John Potter is working for his M.A. in cinema at the University of Southern California. During vacations, he lives at 122 Marson St., Springfield, Mass.

Ted Alter is a captain in the Army. He married Miss Betty Jane Reed of Ludington, Mich., in Bad Nauheim, Germany, on January 18, 1947.

Robert H. Weiser is heating and air conditioning engineer with General Electric Company in Bloomfield, N. J. He has one son, Robert Charles, and lives at 85 Bell St., Belleville, N. J.

1944

John E. Barber is an engineer at the Taylor Instrument Company and resides with his parents at 189 Woodbine Ave., Rochester 11, N. Y.

Dave Bareis is married and is living at 5 St. James Ter., Boston 19, Mass. He is doing research in nuclear energy at MIT for the Brookhaven National Laboratory.

Dean H. Parker Jr. is living at 1316 Lake Rd., Webster, N. Y. When he is not busy with his two baby daughters, who are fourteen months apart, he finds time to work at Kodak Park.

Robert E. Brunner celebrated his first wedding anniversary June 22, 1947. He is a jeweler, living at 307 N. Euclid Ave., Westfield, N. J.

Jacob E. Gair is doing graduate work in geology at John Hopkins University. He resides at 853 Park Ave., Baltimore.

John K. Kinzie is with Black and Veatch consulting engineers, and is living at 7530 Madison Ave., Kansas City 5, Mo. He married Ruth Huckle on August 31 of last year.

Anthony Malgieri Jr. is with Westinghouse Electric Corporation, and resides at 327 Vassar Ave., Swarthmore, Pa.

William Adler is in the student executive course for International Harvester Company. His address is 1329 Oakton St., Evanston, Ill.

Walter F. Siegmund is doing graduate work in optics at the University's Institute of Optics, and lives at 364 Fernwood Ave., Rochester.

William E. Hetrick is working on jet engine development at Pratt & Whitney and lives at 111 Forest St., East Hartford, Connecticut.

Leonard R. Sayler has been awarded a fellowship at Massachusetts Institute of Technology for work toward a doctor's degree in industrial relations. He has been teaching economics at the University of Buffalo.

Warren S. Richardson of 806 E. Seneca St., Ithaca, N. Y., was married June 17. Warren will begin study at Cornell Law School next fall.

YOUR CLASSMATES

College for Women

ROBIN DENNIS, '44, Editor

1902

Mary Cynthia Gillette is the new secretary for the Class of 1902. Her address is 15 Atkinson Street.

1904

We had an interesting letter forwarded to us from Vera Chadsey Taichbell in Glens Falls, N. Y., sending her greetings to everyone in "Naughty Four." Aside from devoting much time to her family, three sons and two grandchildren, she spends three afternoons a week telling stories to children in nine small rural schools.

1909

Esther Sheridan Smallwood is living in Warsaw and working as a county tuberculosis agent.

Ruth Jennings Hodge tells us that she is working as an assistant in one of the art classes in the Memorial Art Gallery, and, although she has had no previous experience along that line, enjoys it very much.

1910

Katharine Bowen Gale received a letter from Hazel Chapman Merriman who is living in Bronxville, N. Y. Hazel tells of meeting Professor Shedd and enjoying very much seeing him after 17 years.

Corabella Palmer Hutchinson has been spending several months in California visiting her daughter and her two grandchildren.

1912

Marguerite Castle reports that the Class of 1912 had a reunion luncheon on June 14 at the AAUW Clubhouse. It was the 37th reunion of the class, and several members from out-of-town were present.

1913

Ruth Wooster Brown also reports that her class had a meeting on Sunday, May 11 at Cutler Union.

Irene Larzelere Scibouton and her husband last spent two months in Washington last winter and have now returned to Naples, N. Y., where they are remodeling a farm.

Judith Ogden Taylor and her daughter Jane, '44, are motoring to the West Coast. Judith's new address is 165 Harvard St.

Our sympathy goes to May Pammenter Brainerd in the loss of both her father and her husband.

Marion Long Gifford's two sons are both in college; one is to study for his master's degree at Trinity College, Hartford, Conn.

1918

Gertrude Herdle Moore recently received a museum fellowship at the annual convocation of the Rochester Museum of Arts and Sciences. This award is given to individuals who have distinguished themselves by their attainments in art and scientific fields.

1919
Jesse Guinan Eppinger was elected class chairman at a recent class meeting held in Catler Union.

We hear that Della Allen Somers is a grandmother and very proud of her granddaughter, Cheryl Somers Fletcher.

We noticed that Katherine Van de Carr had one of her paintings exhibited at the Finger Lakes Exhibit in the Art Gallery. That’s quite an accomplishment for one with her brief experience with brush and pallet.

1922
Our sympathy goes to Mildred Smeed Van de Walle on the death of her father, Ernest L. Smeed on April 10, 1947.

Doris Crippen Belaef-White is secretary to one of the colonels at Fort Richardson, Anchorage, Alaska, where her husband is stationed. She writes that the housing shortage is so bad that, in order for a wife to live on the post, she must work. She writes: “Living in Alaska is a very interesting experience. There is so much to be done here that everyone works at some sort of a job, and afternoon bridge is a thing of the stateside past.”

Emma Kittredge Quim who was graduated from Women’s Medical College in 1920 is living in Los Angeles, where her husband is a surgeon. He was appointed recently to the State Medical Board, and Emma writes: “We go scooting off to meetings at San Francisco and Sacramento once a month.”

1923
Florence Cooksley has her own medical writing service in Washington, D. C.

1924
Marion Webster will spend the summer serving on the faculty of the School of Library Science at Syracuse University. This is the third summer that Marion has done this; during the year she is librarian for the Montclair High School.

Helen McNall Bramley is now living in Morton, N. Y., where her husband, Craig, is operating a supply station for farmers. Helen writes that her daughter, Jeanne, is attending Wells College, and her son, Bud, is at Peedie.

Marion Weaver Soule was recently re-elected president of the Rochester Branch of the AAWU.

1925
Dorothy Kenvon Geller, has a new daughter, Paula. Dorothy and her husband are living on Long Island.

Louise Thomas Lounsbury is now Mrs. James Spaulding. She was married April 18, 1947.

Elizabeth Cuhley left her teaching position at Huntington last January and re-enlisted for service in the Red Cross. Florence Stein Ruben’s son, Donald, is a freshman at Syracuse University. Evelyn Foster Westbury’s daughter is also a freshman at Syracuse.

Frances Kenyon is a librarian at Puncheon School in Honolulu.

1926
Ruth Hollandier Hill is the new secretary for the Class of 1926. All news items should be sent to her at 3 Clifford Street, Fairport.

1927
The class of 1927 elected new officers at their twentieth reunion luncheon on May 10. The new chairman is Marion Maggs Vicinus and the vice-chairman is Marion Houlihan Brown. Myr'tice Slipt Mault was re-elected fund agent, and Berta Croters is the new secretary. All news items should be sent to her at 361 Farmington Road, Rochester.

Myr'tice turned over to the Alumnae Association $14 which was contributed to the Swimming Pool Fund by those who attended the luncheon. Each member is going to try to give a dollar to the Swimming Pool Fund, as well as her annual contribution to the Alumnae Fund.

Louise Leadly Tborne is living in Largo, Fla., where her husband is chaplain at Bay Pines Veterans’ Hospital. They have two children, Frank, aged 14, and Sylvia, who is four.

Ruth Handy Carter, who lives in New York City, is secretary to the executive director of the Committee for the Care of European Children. Over 2,000 children have been placed in foster homes through this service.

Myr'tice Slipt Mault and her husband, Herbert, have a new adopted son, William Herbert.

1928
Helen Grant Kelley writes from Mt. Morris that, in addition to caring for her three boys ranging from five to ten years, she has been doing substitute teaching in both Nunda and Mt. Morris.

Lydia Frankenberg Lenox and her family have moved to 14466 Mansfield Ave., Detroit, where Lydia’s husband is executive secretary of the Detroit Council of Churches.

1929
Catherine Van Vooris McCarthy was married in April to Arthur W. Metcalfe and is now living in Topeka, Kan.

Evelyn Hyslop Niles is living in New London, Conn. She has a daughter, Judith Evelyn, born August 22, 1946, and a son, eight years old.

Dorothy Wellington Mclroy is now living in Ithaca, where her husband has been appointed associate professor of electrical engineering at Cornell University after receiving his doctor’s degree at MIT.

1930
Beatrice Boardman Bibby and her husband, Basil Glover Bibby, are returning to Rochester from Belmont, Mass. Dr. Bibby, who has been dean of Tufts Dental School since 1940, assumed his duties as director of the Eastman Dental Dispensary in June.

Margaret Valance Ritchie and her husband, Donald, have twin girls, Margaret Adelle and Janet Olga, born January 12, 1947. The January issue of Better Homes and Gardens contained an interesting article which Margaret wrote, about the planning of the Fernwood Park development in Rochester.

Florence Knope Freeman’s husband is a member of the Boston Symphony Orchestra. They are living in Needham, Mass.

As a result of the correspondence about the Alumnae Fund, a lot of news has come to Doris Savage, the class secretary. One item of interest is that Beatrice Poulton Rogers and her family are moving back to Rochester from Oak Ridge, Tenn. Beatrice’s son is two and a half years old, and her daughters are five and eight. They will live in Belcoda Drive.

Helen Zorich White writes that she is now living in Cleveland, Ohio. Helen is an enthusiastic leader of a new Girl Scout troop. Her daughter, Mary Helen, is now ten years old.

Evelyn Green Vosburg is living in Midland, Mich., where her husband, Theodore, is music director at the Dow Chemical Company. Evelyn also directed rehearsals for the operaetta, “Sweethearts,” which was performed by the Dow musical organizations the last week in April. The Vosburgs and their daughter, Bonnie Jean, will visit the Eastman School this summer.

Margaret Hitchcoek Walker writes that she enjoys reading the news about her classmates. Margaret is living in Johnson City, Pa., where she is a unit president of the PTA and teaches a Sunday school class at the Methodist Church. She has two daughters, age nine and seven.

1931
Elizabeth Scoble Killip is now occupying her new home in Laney Road, right across the street from Hildegarde Petri Jamison.

Foster and Harriet Hewitt Thayer have a new son, born April 9, and named after his father. The Thayers have two other children, Priscilla, nine years old, and Molly, who is four.

Rochester Alumni-Alumnae Review
Brewer Ferguson and Susan Lee, 8 months old. Peggy living and her husband, Poelrna Cohn, in Arling­ down. Herman, is

Stephanie, who is two and a half.

is living in Ithaca, and her husband,

Boys, William and Douglas.

Vernon. They have a daughter, Constance Jean, of Penfield, announce the birth of a daughter are living in Wethersfield, Conn. and and teaching at the University as Germany, where her that they have had a chance to travel in as well as Germany, and enjoyed it very of Social Security Board. They have two in Delmar and hope to build a house serving as a recreation worker in Old recreation worker in Old

Social Security Board. They have two were in Rochester for Graflex.

in Hollywood, Calif. Helen works for a branch of Eastman have bought a home in Hollywood, Calif.

Mildred Bevan Miller writes that she is teaching at Cornell. She says that “to date the faculty housing project has quantities of mud, children, and dogs, and become farmers. They have 23 different enterprises and welcome friends ed for two months. They were in Rochester for two months. They were in Rochester on May 6. The parents are Dr. and the UR campus.

Announcement has been received of the arrival of William Henry Reed II at the Holston Valley Hospital, Kingsport,

on May 6. The parents are Dr. and Mrs. John Shelton Reed, (Alice Greene).

Peggy Oster Broughton writes from Albany that she has two children, Karen, and Susan Lee, 8 months old. Peg is planning a trip to California this summer to take the children to see her family.

She and her husband have bought property in Delmar and hope to build a house soon.

Rosalie Scinta is in the Red Cross

as a recreation worker in Old

Cantonment Hospital, Mitchell Field, L. I.

Evelyn Stiler is a social service worker in the Psychiatric Clinic, Massachusetts

General Hospital.

Bettyle Hauick Pike writes that her daughter, Linda, is just four years old. The Pikes are living in a house on the estate owned by Mrs. Arthur H. Scott, widow of A. H. Scott, the paper manufacturer.

Mrs. Scott is one of the foremost horticulturists in the country and, Betty says, there were some 90,000 daffodils in bloom in her gardens.

Bessie De Hey's engagement was announced by her parents recently. Bessie's fiancé is Edward L. Harris of East Orange,

N. J., a senior at the UR.

John and Winifred Courtney Hudak announce the birth of a son, John Charles, born on January 23.

Elsa Lapp is taking special courses in jewelry making at the School of Design,

Providence, R. I.

Betty Anne Hale and Tom, have a new son, Tom Jr., born May 24.

Pamela Faber is now Mrs. Roderick

MacLeod, after her marriage on June 7 in the United Presbyterian Church.

Another wedding of interest is that of Monica Kelly to John Feeley, a former

Navy officer from Baltimore, Md. The wedding took place at St. Paul's Church on May 10.

Emma Mueller's engagement to John

R. Spielman has been announced. Emma has been teaching at Northfield Seminary in Massachusetts since September, after her discharge from the WAVES. Her fiancé was also a Navy officer and is now working as a mechanical engineer in Washington, D. C.

Another member of '41 who became engaged recently is Marie Concettina

Bronie, who will be married to John P.

Andrews of Flushing, L. I. Mr. Andrews was graduated from the University of Buffalo School of Pharmacy.

Juanita Warner plans to take graduate work at Michigan State University next year. She will work for her M. A. in bacteriology.

Doris Glazer was married last March.

She is now Mrs. Edward J. Light.

The class of 1943 had a meeting in the East Lounge of Curier Union on May 22, and 27 members of the class were present.

Gladys Greenwood Holtzman, class

chairman, reports that a business meeting was conducted and refreshments were served, and it gave them an opportunity to catch up on the news about their classmates. It was decided that they could have four meetings a year, and they would start a class treasury, which would help pay for postage spent on mailings for the

JUNE-JULY, 1947
Margaret Moon is in Okinawa with the Red Cross and is expected to return to Rochester this summer.

Helen Brewer Hilfinger and her husband, Wilbur, '42, have a new daughter, Sandra Lee, who was born on April 12.

Verna Renaud is now Mrs. Stanley Rex. She was married June 14 in St. John the Evangelist Church.

Althea Haas Houch, and Bob, '43, have a baby girl, Susan Carol, born May 22. Althea and Bob are living at 2161 East Ave.

Betty Phillips was married June 22 in Trinity Methodist Church to Oral F. Fisher, of Princeton, Ind., a graduate of Evansville College, Evansville, Ind. They will spend the summer in East Burke, Vt., where Oral will be pastor of two churches. In the fall, they will return to Chicago Theological Seminary where both are doing graduate work.

1944

Esther Stratton was married June 19 to William Adams, who is on the research staff of Strong Memorial Hospital. Esther will teach art at Harley School next year.

Elizabeth Lapp is working as a reservations agent for American Airlines in Washington, D. C. She expects to do graduate work at Denver University this fall.

Caroline Boller McKee and her husband, Abner, have a son, William Arthur, born April 15. The McKees are now living in Sudos.

1945

Edith Sumeriski Trybalski writes that she has a new son, James, born October 4, 1946.

Betty Bebb was married to Wesley A. Sager Jr. on Saturday, May 31 in Amsterdam, N. Y.

Dorothy Pennington is teaching piano and theory at the Marlborough School for Girls in Los Angeles and says that there are some interesting girls at the school, including daughters of movie producers, Walt Disney and Darryl Zanuck.

Marilyn Lester is now Mrs. Boyd J. Losee, after her marriage April 12, in the Church of the Nativity, Brockport.

1946

Kay Johnson is another alumna who is wearing a bright new diamond on her third finger. Her engagement to Lewis Scutiere was announced. Kay is secretary to the vice-president in charge of exports at the General Railway Signal Company.

Ruth Brown is studying sociology at the Merrill Palmer School in Cleveland, Ohio. Another sociology student is Dottie Goldman, who received her M. A. from Washington University in St. Louis. She is now working for the Monroe County Welfare Department.

Jean McNair was married in June to Richard Tobin, a student at the UR Medical School. Jean has completed her nursing course, and will become a member of the Visiting Nurses Association.

IN MEMORIAM

Dr. Edward B. Angell, '77; M.D., University of Pennsylvania, '81; died April 23, 1947, at Cold Spring, N. Y. He was 90.

From 1866 to 1922, he was neurologist for General Hospital and Monroe County Infirmary; private practice, 1922-1944. He was a founder of the Rochester Academy of Medicine; past vice-president of the American Neurological Association and of the State Medical Society. Surviving is his son, Montgomery B. Angell, at whose home he died.

Burton L. Anderson, '03, member of Delta Upsilon, died December 19, 1946, at his home in Richmond Hill, Ont. He was president of B. L. Anderson, Limited, insurance company. A native of Phelps, N. Y., he became a resident of Toronto after graduation and entered the insurance business. He retired recently as secretary-treasurer of the Royal Canadian Golf Association after 30 years' service. Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Irene Fleming Anderson; two daughters, Mrs. Edward Wood and Mrs. Nelles Silverthorne; three sons, Ross, Lyman and John; two sisters and a brother.

Judson L. Broughton, '00, member of Theta Chi and Phi Beta Kappa, died March 28, 1946, in Pavilion, N. Y. He was 67.

Clarence G. Carr, '80, L.L.B., University of Minnesota, '95, member of Delta Calif. A practicing attorney in Minneapolis, Minn., he retired in 1931 and moved to California.

Milford L. Hakes, '99, member of Theta Delta Chi, died May 23, 1947, at his home in Barre Center, N. Y., near Albion. He was 75. He had been engaged in farming throughout his life and was an active member of the Grange. A sister and two brothers survive.

Harold J. King, '34, member of Theta Delta Chi, died June 16, 1947. He was metallurgist with the F. X. Ludlum Company from 1935-41, and from 1945-47. From 1941-45, he was instructor in metallurgy and engineering at the University. Surviving are his wife, Marcia Rother King; a daughter, Demaris, his father, Joel D. King; two brothers, Charles and Raymond King.

Joseph Lipsky, '21, died Feb. 17, 1947. He was associate counsel in the Division of Law of the State Education Department from 1933-40, becoming director of the division in 1941. Previously, he had been in private practice in New York City and Jacksonville, Fla.

Ross Loughborough, '94, died April 4, 1947. He was 75. He was a member of the Rochester Post Office staff throughout his life. His wife, Irene James Loughborough, survives.

John A. Rockfellow, '39, member of Delta Upsilon, died May 16, 1947, in Los Angeles, Calif. He was 80. Behind him lay a stirring past which had won him the title of "The Arizona Trail Blazer." He went to Arizona in 1878 and during his life there was a prospector, miner, stockman, civil engineer and teacher. Although he found his career in the West, he had strong memories of his native New York State and the cattle of his Cochise Stronghold Ranch, founded in 1883, bore the NY brand. Surviving are his son, Philip, of Los Angeles; a sister, Miss Ann Rockfellow, of Santa Barbara, and two daughters.

Charles H. Welch, '27, died May 5, 1947, in Rochester. He was in sales work throughout his life, first with the F. A. Owen Co. and later with the Frigidaire Corp., Metropolitan Life, Prudential Life, and Alexander Hamilton Institute.
THIS NEW LINCOLN ROCHESTER SERVICE OFFERS

A BETTER WAY TO BUY YOUR CAR

ON TIME

Through Your Dealer

THE Lincoln Rochester Finance Plan is a complete and advantageous method for purchasing new and used cars through your dealer, with convenient installment payments. It is brought to you in conjunction with the American Bank Credit Plan.

You enjoy low bank rates, courteous treatment and a dignified credit relationship. When all payments have been made on schedule, you will become entitled to our valuable Bank Credit Reference Card.

This comprehensive plan also includes for you, if you wish, insurance and touring coverages every driver needs daily, at low cost. Be sure to ask your dealer about these ten "Safe Travel" Features.

When you are ready to buy a new or used car, see your dealer about the Lincoln Rochester Finance Plan.

This New Bank Credit Plan Is Offered Exclusively by Automobile Dealers

LINCOLN ROCHESTER
TRUST COMPANY

MAIN OFFICE ............. 183 East Main Street, Rochester 3, N. Y.
ROCHESTER TRUST OFFICE .... 5 West Main Street, Rochester 3, N. Y.

LINCOLN OFFICE .................. 33 Exchange St.
LAKE AVE. OFFICE ............. 1495 Lake Ave.
WEST END OFFICE ............. 886 Main St., W.
EAST END OFFICE .......... 460 N. Goodman St.
MONROE AVE. OFFICE ...... 560 Monroe Ave.
PORTLAND-CLIFFORD OFFICE 320 Portland Ave.

TWELVE CORNERS OFFICE 1853 Monroe Ave.
DEWEY-STONE OFFICE ...... 2865 Dewey Ave.
IRONDEQUOIT OFFICE .... 621 Titus Ave.
NEWARK OFFICE ........... Newark, N. Y.
BROCKPORT OFFICE ...... Brockport, N. Y.
GENEVA TRUST OFFICE .... Geneva, N. Y.

MEMBER FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM • MEMBER FEDERAL DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION
With the top Hollywood stars Chesterfield is the big favorite

Gregory Peck
Starring in David O. Selznick's "Duel in the Sun"

Always Buy Chesterfield
A - Always milder
B - Better tasting
C - Cooler smoking

The sum-total of smoking pleasure